KOYIKKAL PALACE, A BEAUTIFUL PORTRAIT OF THE HISTORY OF INDIA

On Wednesday, 27th July 2022, Students of MGM School Kaniyapuram visited the Koyikkal Palace in Nedumangadu as part of a field trip conducted by the school's literary club. The Koyikkal Palace was built for Umayamma Rani of the Venad Royal Family in the 16th Century. Umayamma Rani was the queen of Venad between 1677 and 1684.

The palace is maintained by the Kerala State Department of Archaeology, and also hosts folklore and a numismatic museum. Each wall showcased the victories of our leaders and the stories behind them. On said date, Students of MGM Kaniyapuram had been given the chance to know more about such stories that the past had to tell.

Gokul Viswa P.
Class-X

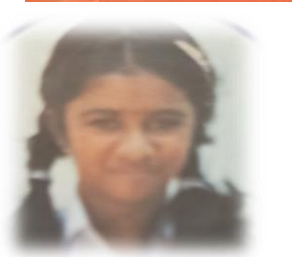

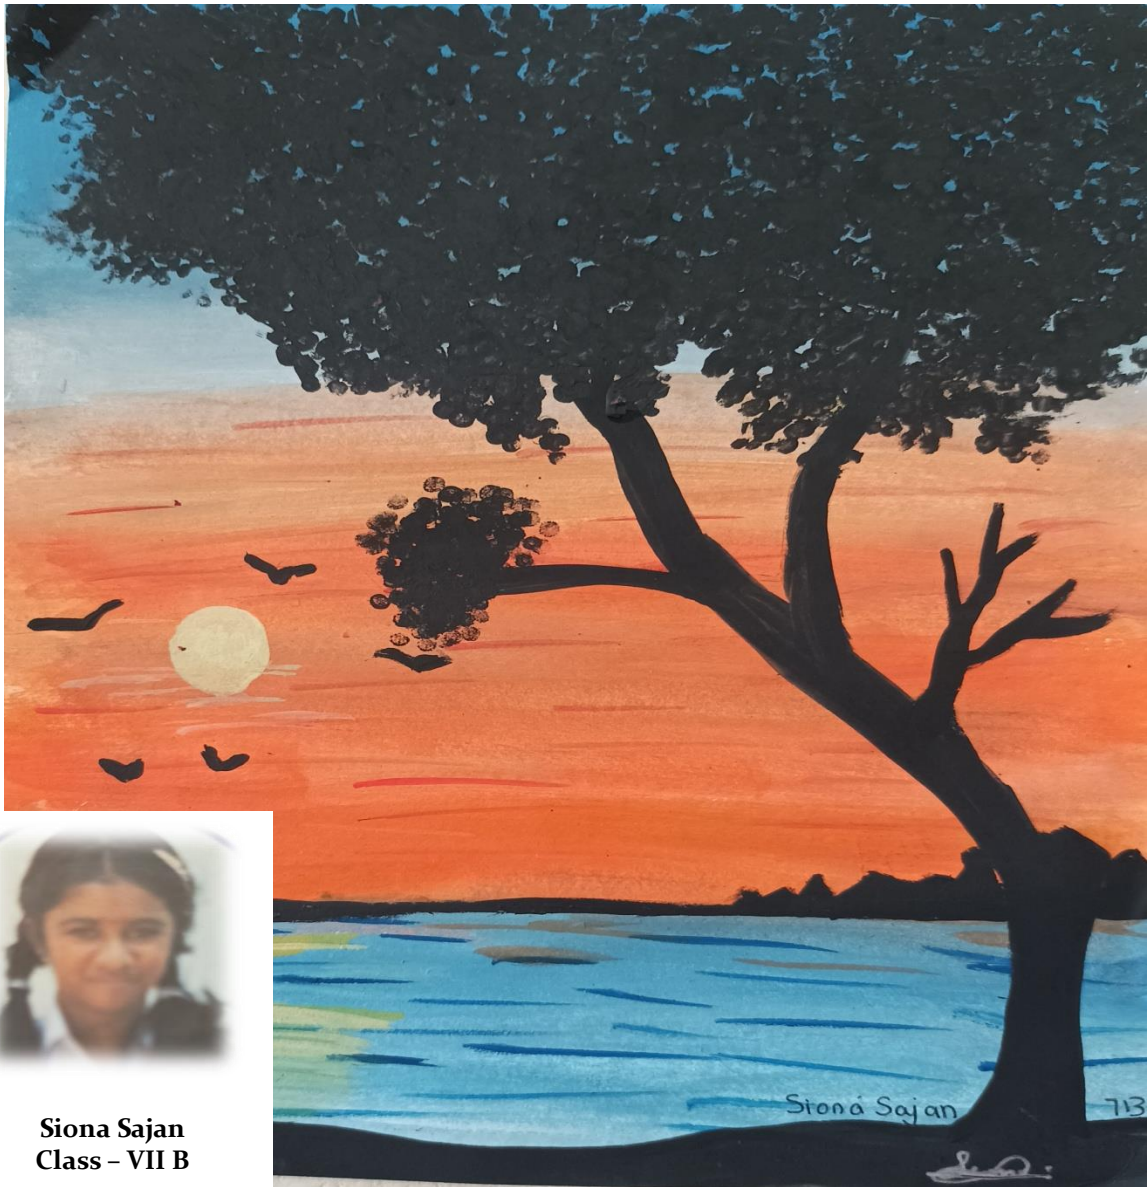

All of us were enriched with the knowledge of the history of India, even before the time of the British Intrusion into our country. The trip handed knowledge on many vast and varied subjects such as the utensils used by the people to the coins (currency) that was used by the people of old India. The trip had us explore the vast history of our country, through recreations of the showcase subjects. We were able to see examples of things such as, the sculptures, artwork, concepts, culture etc of old India.

A VISIT TO KOYIKKAL PALACE

Sandra S.Nair
Class - X

On 27th July 2022, students of MGM SCHOOL KANIYAPURAM visited Koyikkal Palace located in Nedumangadu, Thiruvananthapuram. The Palace was built for UmayammaRanu who ruled from the year 1677 to 1684. The Palace is rich in treasures and antiquities. It is maintained by the Kerala State Department of Archaeology. The guide in the Palace explained the importance of every object and enlightened us with the mythical stories. The Palace has a variety of traditional lamps used in temples. It is the only palace in Kerala where we can see an instrument called Chandralayam. We also saw old manuscripts, ornaments dedicated to the Goddess. The palace has got a collection of coins and has different types of weight measuring devices. We saw an ancient drainage system and wooden vessels for storing food items. The Palace also displayed a variety of ancient weapons. The museum informed us well with the importance of cultural and historical value of Kerala.
